

Ready Saturday!

The Season's Newest
Millinery

Hats: Some of the new "Mushrooms," the raging style in France. Some of flowers—as fresh and full of life as our gardens in May. Others in tailored shapes—saucy, but becoming. And no matter the hair or eyes to match, or the color of your dress; you'll find a bonnet here that will be becoming.

You've worn hats that didn't feel exactly right, made you nervous and out of sorts—now, haven't you? Our trimmings balance beautifully, and there is just the right set about them that makes the woman who wears them feel at ease and sure of herself.

A welcome is extended to all.

Respectfully,

ADA FRICK.
